

International short films competition offering young filmmakers worldwide the opportunity to showcase their talent during the Encounters Short Film & Animation Festival and getting a chance of winning up to £2,500 prize money, invaluable industry exposure and other exclusive prizes.

How to enter the competition

- Short films should be 90 seconds or less in duration, of any productions techniques (except for advertisements) and completed after January 2019.
- If the original language is not English, the film must include subtitles.
- Each entrant can submit up to ten entries.

If your films are longer than 90 seconds, you can still enter a film to Encounters Film Festival.

More information

Find out more by visiting the Depict competition page

DepicT! - Can you do it in 90 seconds?

Print

Eligible Countries

All countries